

An underestimated issue.

Only 1% believe they'll be out of work for more than three months.¹

More than 25% will become disabled before they retire.²

¹ Only 1% of working adults believe they'll be out of work for three months or more, according to the CDA Disability Statistics.

² U.S. Social Security Administration, Fact Sheet, April 2, 2014